Chapter 1: Why Am I Writing This And Giving This Away For FREE?

Oh man, another FREE forex report on the internet!

Ok... I know what you are thinking...

Most people think that special reports are just a whole bunch of crap, with nothing solid inside that only scratches the surface of a topic and that's it.

You know what? You're right! There is indeed too much crap on the Internet and I make no excuses for that.

But look, I'm gonna drill this in your head right from the start.

I'm telling you that this report is not like any other report.

I am not gonna bore you to death with re-used information.

But instead, I want to tell you a story, a very interesting story that will either make you laugh, cry, retaliate in anger or sit down and will probably make you want to reflect and think about your life.

This is my goal and that is why I'm giving this away for FREE.

Frankly speaking, I'm sick and tired of people complaining that they have absolutely NO IDEA what to do most of the time... or where to start.

It's a typical 'newbie' syndrome. Chances are, you might be in one of these areas where you've been burned by forex hypes or scams.

And it sucks, because most people wind up sitting at their computer watching the charts for long gruelling hours every day instead of cashing in unlimited pips while you sleep!

They go online searching for the holy grail of forex trading or the most powerful automated trading software in the world, instead of working on the REAL strategies of trading the forex market.

If this doesn't sound familiar to you, then I hope you never get a chance to encounter this situation.

Because it's so easy for us to get caught up in all the latest "hoo-ha" .

But you must not miss the point that people go on the Internet to MAKE MONEY and in order to make money, you got to DO the things that bring in the money – it's as simple as walking from point A to point B.

Unlimited Pips – Forex Success Simplified

Nothing fancy, nothing too 'chunky' that will make it hard for you to swallow.

Just plain simple steps to cash in on the huge forex swings with less time than it takes to make a cup of coffee. And that is the sole purpose of LMT-Forex-Formula.

In fact, cashing in unlimited pips is so simple that you most probably hit yourself over the head, thinking... why haven't I thought of this!

You've been warned.

Chapter 2: So What Has This Book Got To Do With Your Forex Business?

First I want to start by clearing all your doubts about trading the forex market.

And then I'll discuss with you the necessary steps that YOU MUST TAKE, on making your first pip in forex trading.

Still remember what I say about walking from point A to point B?

The truth is that, most people DON'T walk from point A to point B.

And there's too much confusion and hard work involved. Even the forex gurus out there are teaching you too advance trading methods that they have forgotten what it's like to be in the shoes of a newbie.

So in this book, I will help you clear your doubts in plain simple English. I will list all the steps in a short, simple to understand manner so that you won't get lost while reading this book.

So let's began...

Chapter 3: How You Can Earn Over $10,000 Per Month With Less Than 15 Minutes Work A Day?

Forex is the largest currency market in the world. It isn't located in any particular city or town. As a matter of fact it isn't located anywhere - it is entirely electronic. All you need to start investing money on Forex is ONE dollar and access to the Internet.

These easy to fulfil requirements are the reason why millions of people invest their money on Forex every day.

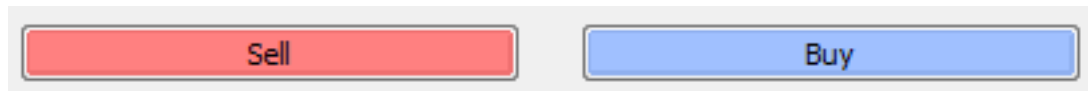

Among the investors are professional stock brokers, accountants, housewives, retired persons, students, engineers and stay home moms - literally anybody.

There's no need for any specialised knowledge or skills to become a Forex trader.

So until this part, is it simple to understand?

Yes, very simple. What more – it can't be any simpler.

All forex traders log in their trading account via the internet and the most basic function that they see is the following:

Of course there are more sophisticated tools such as charts, expert advisors, indicators, but the most simplified version looks exactly as above.

Now what you going to do to make money from the forex market is to either click on the "Sell" Button or the "Buy" Button.

Here's an example of when you click on the "Sell" Button.

Just an effort of a few clicks a day, you can earn thousands or even tens of thousands dollars per day.

Easy?

Sound easy right... so... where's the catch?

Well, what you need to know is WHICH BUTTON TO CLICK.

Majority of the people treat forex trading like gambling.

Why?

Because in order to make a sensible decision to trade, you need to know what you are doing. You need time and skill to know which button to click.

And most of the people lose money because they do not have the time and skill to make the right decision.

Therefore 98% of the forex traders lose their hard earn money in minutes. Ouch!

So what about the remaining 2%?

Aha... you got it! These 2% of forex traders get EVERYTHING that the remaining 98% lose.

These 2% who get all the money KNOW what to do, because they ALWAYS use proper system that makes the RIGHT decisions.

What's more is that system don't have emotions. They don't know what fear or greed means, and they never act according to intuition. They obtain the results by means of calculation and this makes them the best advisors.

That's why 98% of the forex traders lose their money to 2% of the forex traders.

Some of the forex gurus talk about automated trading robots and sell them to the public. These robots are supposed to help the traders to buy and sell their trades automatically without them monitoring the market, but unfortunately, they DON'T WORK!

The reason is that the forex market evolves daily and every new day requires a fresh, modified approach to trade. These automated robots may give you a nice profit this week, but burn your trading account for the next 3 weeks.

YOU DON'T have Control...

That's why the BEST and the ONLY working way to profit from Forex Trading is by combining manual trading with an intelligent, self improving signal producing software.

Chapter 4: Fastest Way To Earn First Dollar Trading Forex

It's even better that you trade that with an even larger lot size. What you see above is just 1 standard lot size. "$1700 in 8 hours."

What if you are using 10 standard lot to trade?

$17,000 in 8 hours!

Chapter 5: How Different Will Your Life Be, 8 Hours From Now?

Only this – that you are the master of your own destiny.

I want you to imagine what your life will be like 8 hours from now because you can use L-M-T Forex Formula to help you to earn so much money from the forex market that you'll never look back at your life before, anymore!

I want you to visualize with me:

- Waking up early in the morning to see that your target profit is hitting. Unlimited pips are rushing to your trading account.
- Imagine what your family will say to you as you laze around at home all day, people thinking you are jobless, but when you walk to the bank and withdraw a boat load of cash...
- Imagine that you sleep till you finish sleeping and not woke up by the noisy alarm clock in the morning.
- Imagine spending your time doing what you love everyday without the limitation of time and money.

Do you know what the best part is? All these things WILL come true! It's not a fantasy. These visualizations are not pie in the sky fantasies that people dream about.
